THE ITALIAN COLLECTION

MEET THE MILLS

World-class cloth, crafted by Italy's finest mills and tailored by Moss. Setting the benchmark for luxury fabrics, our network of Italian mills oversees every step of production – from meticulously sourcing raw materials through to dying, spinning, weaving, washing and finishing to the highest standards. Their processes are rooted in tradition, yet constantly evolving. Like using soft Alpine waters to wash their fabrics or blending centuries-old skills with the precision of cutting-edge technology.

Like Moss, they balance heritage with innovation to deliver their best. We select our mills carefully and collaborate closely with them to weave their exceptional textiles together with our suiting legacy. Because we believe great tailoring deserves nothing less than world-class cloth.

Barberis

Family-run since 1663, Barberis is one of the oldest textile mills in the world. It specialises in luxurious wool fabrics, particularly flannel, and combines the knowledge of skilled artisans with state-of-the-art technology.

E. THOMAS

An esteemed mill based on the shore of Lake Lugano, employing much of the local town in Brusimpiano. As an independent, E. Thomas thrives on its innovative approach and is known for modern interpretations of classic styles.

Ferla

Established in Biella in 1880, Ferla has been run by three generations of the same family. World-renowned for its tactile cloths, it specialises in baby alpaca yarns and textured bouclé weaves (the latter of which is supplied to Chanel).

Drago

Specialising in ultra-fine, luxury fabrics, Drago is known for its blends of wool with refined fibres like silk, cashmere and linen to create unique textures and vibrant colours.

Solbiati

Established in 1874, Solbiati is now owned by the esteemed Loro Piana mill with the same emphasis on ultra-luxurious fibres. The mill is acclaimed for premium summer fabrics, with expertise in natural fibres like linen, wool, cotton and hemp.

Bottinelli

Bottinelli has been making ties for almost a century in Como, a region renowned for its silk craftsmanship and long history of tie-making. The Bottinelli mill stands out as one of the best, thanks to their approach to tie-making that combines textile traditions with cutting-edge printing technology.

THE ITALIAN COLLECTION

Great tailoring starts with great fabric. And at Moss, we're committed to crafting our collections from the finest materials. Our story began with Moses Moss, who transformed Savile Row offcuts into the first ready-to-wear suits nearly 175 years ago. Today, we continue that tradition of cutting fine clothes from fine fabrics – but now we partner directly with the world's leading fabric mills.

From the hills of Biella to the shore of Lake Lugano, we work with Italy's finest mills, trusted by the world's best tailors and fashion houses. Each mill brings its distinct handwriting and specialist cloths – like Ferla's tactile bouclé weaves, Barberis' smooth Super 100s wools and E. Thomas' creative interpretations of classic designs.
